

Your support of United Way moves families from Poverty to Possibility

Nearly half of local families are in, or one emergency away from, poverty – including 30% of families with children and 43% of seniors.

Your support funds impact year-round. United Way leads and supports community programs and agencies aimed at moving families out of poverty and into possibility by addressing the root causes of inequities in health, education, and financial stability across south central Indiana.

No one can tackle these issues alone, but united we can make a meaningful change.
